

10:00-11:00	Short family service
11:00 - 11:15	Kiddush & snack for kids
11:15-12:15	Interfaith couples & families at IJC Many of us at the IJC are in interfaith or multi-faith relationships. Join us for a conversation about the dynamics, complexities and blessings that may be unique to these relationships and families. We especially want to welcome all adults who are part of interfaith families to join us. We hope the discussion will also help us think about how the IJC can be an inclusive, supportive community for all of us. Facilitated by Rebecca O' Murchadha & Ilana Sumka	What is community? What do we want it to be? How can we create it together? Join us for a great discussion and interaction. We will look at community in theory and practice: Philosophical perspectives including Arendt and Levinas. In practice, how this relates to our responsibility to welcome refugees. Anya Topolsky	Jewish Yoga Join Anu and experience the Shabbat on your yoga mat with breathing exercises and praying with your body and soul. Yoga for all, beginners and experienced practitioners welcome. Anu Ristola	Build your own Shabbat Basket Create a Shabbat kit that includes a kiddush cup, candle sticks, prayers, and more. A fun arts and crafts project for all ages. Tlalit, Ronen and Maayan
12:15-13:00	Lunch
13:15-14:00	Tales from the Diaspora One of the great things about IJC is the coming together of Jews from all over the world. But how did our fellow congregants wind up in places scattered from Sweden to Guatemala and seemingly everywhere in between? What are Jewish communities like in those places? In an interactive discussion we'll hear from diaspora Jews who hail from with less well known Jewish communities. Paul Cohen	Exceptional Jewish women Come and be enlightened about some exceptional but relatively unknown women. Learn about the remarkable lives of Mala Zimetbaum, Gluckel von Hameln and Judy Feld Carr. Ann Englander	The Jewish community of Azerbaijan See photos and hear stories of Paco's journey with Rabbi Nathan to the Jews of the Caucasus. Paco Bataller	Jewish music from, around the world Experience Jewish music from around the world with our very own Maayan Smith who will also play some numbers on his saxophone. Come and sing along!
14:15-15:00	BaLaGan Meet BaLaGan the new group for LGBTQI Jews in Brussels, Belgium & Luxembourg. Learn about BaLaGan's plans, how it fits in the broader perspective within Judaism, Belgium,	Jewish Languages A brief overview of the languages our ancestors have spoken over the ages. Harry will examine what in fact constitutes a Jewish Language. The subject is complicated	The Community Game What does a community need? What is most important? Buy, trade and sell to acquire all the things you want in the community you	Jewish Arts and Crafts Create decorations to celebrate the communal events in our calendar to decorate our

	the LGBTQI movement in general and beyond. We'll try and identify what role progressive Jewish movements have played and can still play in this regard and what added value an organization such as BaLaGan can have in local Jewish life. David A.L. Weis & Syskske van Wesemael	by his argument that there is no such thing as a language. He intends to answer every question with a question. Harry Swalef	design. What will yours look like? For ages 10 and up. Rav Ira	communal home or your own.
--	--	---	--	-----------------------------------